responsible service of alcohol

BCEC responsible service of alcohol initiatives are designed to ensure clients, guests and visitors enjoy an environment that is safe and welcoming. All food and beverage staff trained in the responsible service of alcohol act in accordance with legal obligation and are empowered to take action to ensure the responsible service of alcohol.

the liquor act 1992 states a licensee must:

- behave responsibly in the service, supply and promotion of liquor
- not engage in any practice or promotion that may encourage rapid or excessive consumption of liquor
- engage in practices and promotions that encourage the responsible consumption of liquor
- provide and maintain a safe environment in and around the licensed premises

key components of BCEC's responsible service of alcohol initiatives include:

- providing the sale and / or supply of alcoholic beverages in a responsible manner, including monitoring the consumption of alcohol
- facilitating and maintaining an OLGR approved responsible service of alcohol (RSA) training program, training and assessing employees as competent in RSA
- intervening to ask a person for proof of age before serving alcoholic beverages. If such identification cannot be produced, the patron will not be served or supplied with any liquor
- intervening to prevent possible problems arising from excessive or rapid alcohol consumption
- not serving or supplying anybody who is unduly intoxicated
- having an approved manager on duty at all times of alcohol service
- ensuring guests do not bring alcoholic beverages onto BCEC licensed premises unless prior written approval has been given
